Windows 7/8/8.1/10 Intel CPU Intel HD Graphics or better At least 5 GB of available hard drive space Minimum RAM 512 MB Windows 10 download One thing that has bothered me for years is trying to decide what I want in a display, and not finding a review for it. I mean, I can buy something that has a certain range of features and run it with an internal monitor, but that really isn't going to be the best quality. At least with a monitor that I plan on using as
