The Brisbane Lions have secured a spot in next month's NAB AFL Women's National Championships after a convincing win over Geelong at Simonds Stadium. Defender Alex Williams collected a season-best 39 touches against the Cats to lead the Lions, while midfielder Sharni Layton, who had 23 touches, added another 22 and was supported by defender Emma Phiccerelli (28), with sprinter Tyla Hanks (23) and midfielder Lindsey Clery (17) also vital. The 14-point win was a bonus for the Lions, who were already guaranteed a spot in the elimination final after beating Melbourne in a tense final quarter. At first glance a small margin of victory would suggest that this was a nice win in the sunshine, but the margin and the scores of the sides weren't all that great. The Cats got up by 10 goals in the first quarter. But the Lions were in the ascendancy and had strung together five goals on top of two behinds in the first term to lead by eight points at quarter time. Melbourne's mid-season recruit Hannah Burrows (40) was a stand out, while Isaah Yeo (28) and Ellyse Perry (20) were also influential. The Lions managed to build a third quarter lead of 20 points, pushing the margin out to 44 points at three-quarter time. Nine goals in the last quarter swung the game decisively in the Lions' favour, and a late drop in form by the Cats was too little too late. Brisbane Lions v Geelong at Simonds Stadium, Saturday 4 September Brisbane (3.2) 6.10 (46) 11.8 (74) def Geelong (0.5) 1.0 (6) 2.8 (20) Brisbane Lions in finals: Round Eight Brisbane lost in last year's semi-final against Collingwood; drew in the qualifying final against Melbourne; defeated Richmond in the preliminary final; and beat Melbourne in the semi-final. Geelong started well against Gold Coast, but the Cats were unable to build an advantage. They went into the halftime break trailing by five goals and a quarter, but increased the margin
